Who is the course for?

Analytic Network welcomes professional coaches and consultants, as well as 'leader-coaches' i.e. managers, leaders, human resources (HR) and organizational development (OD) professionals who have informal coaching roles.

We believe that bringing together a diverse mix of experienced participants from coaching, consulting, management, leadership, HR, OD and other backgrounds, from international settings and across sectors, enriches the learning experience of all.

Course Entry Criteria

We are not prescriptive about the criteria for who can attend the program; we welcome those from diverse professional and 'life' backgrounds. However, this course is not a beginners' guide to learning coaching skills. It is for advanced practitioners who wish to learn advanced coaching and leadership approaches. We will assess the booking form and inform you if you have been selected for the course and if there is a place as soon as possible.
